

Possessive 's

→ Translate into English:

- Esta es la casa de Tom: This is Tom's house.
  - Estos son los lapiceros de Helen: These are Helen's pencils.
  - Esta es la mochila de mi madre: This is my mother's schoolbag (or rucksack).
  - Estas son las manzanas de mi hermano: These are my brother's apples.
  - Estos son los zapatos del profesor: These are the teacher's shoes.
  - Estas son las pinturas de los estudiantes: These are the students's crayons.
- .....

→ Student's book 2.4 Activity 2 page 50:

Listen and put the rides in order:

1. The Snake with Ten Tails
  2. Dragons and Flying Horses
  3. Tunnel of Terror
  4. Tunnel of Terror
  5. The Harpies
  6. Tunnel of Terror
- .....

→ Student's Book 2.5 Activity 1 page 51:

In the legends about King Arthur...

- there was a wizard called Merlin.
- there was a castle called Camelot.
- there knights called Sir Lancelot and Sir Galahad.
- there were battles between knights and monsters.

At Camelot...

- there was a round table with chairs for all the knights.
- there were thrones for the king and queen.
- there were shields on the walls.
- there was a dragon on King Arthur's shield.

.....

→ Activity Book:

- page 45: 2

Read and cross out the mistakes. Then, correct them:

1. ... with a bull's head.
2. ... with a crocodile's head.
3. ... with eagle's wings.
4. ...with fish's fins.

- page 49: 1

Complete the sentences:

In King Arthur's banquet hall...

1. There were chairs...
2. There was a crown...
3. There were shields...
4. There were swords...
5. There was a cup...
6. There were flowers...

.....

- ✓ Send me your homework here:

lipedrero@educa.jcyl.es

Thank you!!!