There was / were

There is... (singular)	Hay...
There are... (plural)	Hay... *
There was ... (singular)	Había, hubo...
There were ... (plural)	Había, hubo... *

: en español no hay diferencia entre singular y plural con el hay o había, mientras que en inglés sí, como verás en estos ejemplos:*

- There is a cat on the table: Hay un gato encima de la mesa.
- There are two cats on the table: Hay dos gatos encima...
- Yesterday, there was a party in Zamora: Ayer hubo una fiesta en Zamora.
- Many years ago, there were dinosaurs on the Earth: Hace muchos años, había dinosaurios sobre la Tierra.

Copíais la tabla del there was / were en el cuaderno y hacéis este ejercicio:

Complete with there was or there were:

- _____ a sandwich on the plate.
- _____ books on the table.
- _____ a cat on the chair.
- _____ a girl in the library.
- _____ butterflies in the jar.
- _____ apples in the basket.
- _____ dogs at the park.
- _____ a key on the nightstand.
- _____ people* at the gym.

people [gente] es plural en inglés.*
